

Semantics of Under-Represented Languages in the Americas (SULA) 7

Cornell University, 4 - 6 May 2012

SULA is now every year

The goal of the conference is to bring together researchers working on languages or dialects spoken in the Americas which do not have an established tradition of work in formal semantics. We especially encourage abstract submissions from those whose work involves primary fieldwork or experimentation as well as analysis. We strongly encourage the participation of graduate students.

Invited Speakers

- ▶ Maria Bittner (Rutgers University)
- ▶ Theodore Fernald (Swarthmore College)
- ▶ Robert Henderson (University of California, Santa Cruz)
- ▶ Richard Littlebear (Chief Dull Knife College)
- ▶ Meagan Louie (University of British Columbia, Vancouver)

Call for Papers

We invite submissions of abstracts for papers (25-minute presentation plus 10-minute discussion) or posters on any topic in the semantics of under-represented languages of the Americas. As in previous years, sessions will include a discussion period at the end with commentators.

The abstract submission deadline is 30 January 2012, 11:59pm EST. We expect to make notifications of acceptance in late February.

Instructions for Abstract Submission

We are using EasyAbstracts at The Linguist List for the submission and the review process: <http://linguistlist.org/confcustom/SULA7>

Please visit the conference website for further particulars.

Cornell University
Department of Linguistics

Cornell University
Sage School of Philosophy

Cornell University
Institute for the Social Sciences